Summary

This excerpt covers the affordable homes, the income limits and how long the limits would last. The full statements are on the pages that follow.

Reader note: cite every quote in this report to page 1.

Income limits

As noted on page 1 of this report, the applicant has described the households it would serve.

Affordable homes would be limited to households at or below 70 percent of area median income.

Staff has asked the applicant for the rent schedule it would use.

Number of homes and length of the limits

See page 1 for the summary. The applicant's statements are below.

The developer would set aside 30 of the 150 homes as affordable homes.

The income limits would last for 25 years from first occupancy.

Staff will return with a recommendation at a later meeting.
